Join us in lovely Madison for a day of coaching theory, practice, and reflection led by Kerry Lord and Isobel Stevenson.

This workshop is for educators with some training and experience in coaching who want to come together to hear new ideas, share with other coaches, practice coaching, and reflect on their work.

Be ready to use your device to record your coaching. Bring challenges you'd like to talk about. And above all, wear comfortable shoes!

Breakfast and lunch provided. Parking is free.
